

AAO – NBS Businesscamp

Mr Andrew Tan
Co-Founder, atomi

BUS (Financial Analysis) , Class 2001

An entrepreneur and businessman, Andrew co-founded the eponymous company, atomi with his wife, Mitsuko. atomi is a company that specialises in all things Japanese and Japan related, from furniture, accessories to IT & consulting services.

Prior to that, Andrew has corporate experience in merger & acquisitions, training and incorporate technology, business analytics, performance management and business process re-engineering, having worked with Arthur Andersen, EY, KPMG Consulting, Infor and Standard Chartered Bank. His background in Management & IT consulting, coupled with banking experience, covered regional and global projects roll-out.

Besides managing his business, Andrew is also a part time lecturer in Nanyang Business School, teaching various modules in career foundation classes. He is featured and contributed regularly on newspapers, magazines and TV news for his perspectives and views.