HR Alumni Networking Night 2018

Panellist:

Mr Kelvin Wong

Director (Talent Management), Schaeffler
Bachelor of Business, Class of 1993

Kelvin Wong is a Talent advocate who believes that people potential is strongly anchored on one's self-awareness, resilient agility and tenacious attitude to make things happen. Trained in psychology, coaching and banking, he has a unique 20 year background in HR business partnering, organisational development, talent acquisition, coaching and talent management in MNCs, government agencies and philanthropic sectors.

Kelvin has introduced workplace coaching in the early years where the concept of coaching was deemed for non-performers rather than for success. He has also brought about transformational concepts in young talent development and talent agendas to build succession pipeline. Being a strong supporter of building talent from within organisation, he has established sustainable frameworks to create cross cultural and stretched assignment opportunities to groom high potential staff for more challenging roles ahead.

A Nanyang Technological University and Monash University alumni, Kelvin has an avid interest in charting the strategic HR organisation in a VUCA world whereby, trait profiling, HR analytics and gamification will be even more essential in the future.
