

RSIS – NBS Alumni Night: Alumni – Corporate Mixer

Panellist:

Mr James Cheo

Investment Strategist

Bank of Singapore

Bachelor of Business (Banking and Finance), Class of 2004

As Investment Strategist in Bank of Singapore, James provides thought leadership on investment strategy for private banking clients. He conducts top-down macro analysis and bottom-up research to seek out investment opportunities and trade ideas in equity, fixed income, FX, commodities spaces.

Prior to this, he was the Investment Strategist of Barclays, and the Head of Investment Strategy, Southeast Asia at HSBC Private Bank. He was also the Senior Economist at Monetary Authority of Singapore, and Research Analyst at Global Macro Hedge Fund (Kazim Asset Management).

James is a keynote speaker for the Private Banks' investment outlook seminars across major cities. He contributes investment views regularly to TV networks like CNBC, Bloomberg TV, Channel News Asia and international newspaper like Financial Times and International Herald Tribune, and to regional media like Singapore's Business Times and Straits Time.

He graduated with First Class Honors in Banking and Finance from Nanyang Business School, NTU. He is also a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Chartered Holder.