NTU NBS Alumni Association AI Forum

Panellist:
Mr Ho Yik Joon
Chief Technology Officer (Public Sector)
DXC Technology Singapore
Bachelor of Applied Science (Computer Engineering), Class of 1993
Master of Business Administration, Class of 1997

Yik-Joon Ho is the Chief Technologist, Public Sector, for DXC Technology in Singapore. In this role, he leads the technology strategy and roadmap of DXC's Technology Services portfolio. Yik-Joon collaborates with clients to define and implement technology solutions that address their current and future business needs. Leveraging on strong business consulting skills, he has advised clients on digital strategies that delivers new business capabilities to clients via harnessing innovative IT solutions.

Yik-Joon has extensive experiences in Software Architecture; a member of Association of Enterprise Architects and an Open Group certified Master Architect, he had advised clients on system architecture design and evaluations. Most recently, Yik-Joon was the Senior Principal with Accenture Health and Public Sector. In this role, he had collaborated with Government CIOs to successfully define and implement IT Solutions, putting in place transformation business processes, change management strategies and technology solutions. Prior to that, Yik-Joon has also held IT leadership positions with IBM, Microsoft, and Sun Microsystems.

Yik-Joon graduated from Nanyang Technological University with a Second Upper Class Honours Bachelor Degree and a Master's Degree in Business Administration. Currently, he is a guest lecturer at Institute of System Science, National University of Singapore.