Randstad Singapore

Randstad was founded in the Netherlands in 1960 and has more than 20 years of market experience in Singapore. Our team of local experts delivers a full suite of specialist permanent and contract recruitment services as well as insights-driven HR solutions to leading companies in the region.

We know from our heritage and experiences that real connections are not made from data and algorithm - they require empathy, intuition and instinct. It is here at this intersection between technology and humanity that we redefine the way we connect with our clients, candidates and partners - to deliver a true human experience.

Through the power of HR technology and the passion of our people, we help candidates realise their true potential and enable employers to sustain their success through strategic HR solutions across accounting & finance, banking and financial services, corporate & secretarial support, engineering, human resources, information technology, life sciences as well as sales, marketing & communications.
