THE NANYANG MSc FINANCE EDGE

The Master of Science in Finance (MSc Finance) programme aims to develop and cultivate young bilingual executives who can achieve a successful career in the global finance industry, with a focus on China and the Asia-Pacific region.

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

1 GLOBAL FINANCIAL MARKET INSIGHTS AND PERSPECTIVES

Students gain global financial market insights and perspectives through the programme and the many opportunities to network with and attend workshops by industry experts and visiting professors on topics of finance, current financial market trends, and more. Additionally, they will take part in structured Student Industry Field Trips in China and Singapore to expose them to different financial markets and organisations.

2 ROBUST EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Nanyang Business School has a large pool of experienced faculty members who are well regarded for their strong academic qualifications, rigorous teaching expertise and rich industry experience. The school makes the most of the university's educational resources and has established close partnerships with top international universities.

3 FUTURE READY AND RIGOROUS CURRICULUM

The curriculum adopts a unique teaching model, through case studies, financial market simulations, projects using real live data, thought series, and Student Industry Field Trips. Students get to connect the dots and gain a solid finance foundation in the face of massive information, diverse points of view, and major world events.

4 PERSONAL ASSESSMENT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The programme office organises a wide range of activities to enable students to gain invaluable personal awareness and skills to help them make better career and life decisions moving forward. Tapping on the strong MSc Finance alumni network, students will have more opportunities to establish contacts with industry partners in Singapore and China, as well as receive advice for career development.

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

The MSc Finance is a full-time bilingual programme and can be completed in a year. Students who successfully complete all the course requirements will be awarded a degree in MSc Finance by Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. The maximum candidature is two years.
