

NBS Women Series: Influence – Shaping Personal & Professional Success

Ms Karen Leong

Director

Influence Solutions

Bachelor of Accountancy, 1998

Karen Leong is a sought-after keynote speaker and facilitator in the area of Influence. The author of the book “Win People Over – 75 Simple and Powerful Ways”, she was featured as one of the ten influential professional speakers in Singapore by the Singapore Business Review. Karen was also profiled as one of the 10 Fearless Singaporean female entrepreneurs who “made it happen” by the Vulcan Post.

A Chartered Accountant, Karen first established a career in audit and consulting with KPMG and KPMG Consulting. Karen then embarked on her entrepreneurial journey by launching her very own fashion label.

Two years later, she co-founded her second company – Influence Solutions, a premier learning and development organization that helps companies be more profitable, by helping people be more productive. Today, Influence Solutions operates in over 13 countries and in 4 languages – English, Mandarin, Korean and Japanese. Thousands of executives have benefited from their Influence 247 system, which is used as a talent and leadership development tool in many Fortune 500 companies and local organisations.

For more information about Karen, visit her speaker page: www.karenleong.com and her corporate website: www.influence-solutions.com